

amorla.

CIRCULATION 10,078

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, AUGUST 31, 1888.

O,CTOCK EXTRA

THEY TELL A TRAGIC TALE IN EVERY STREET OF JACKSONVILLE.

The Fever Becomes Hourly More Virulent, and the City's Depopulation Is Decreed as the Only Measure of Relief-Miss Delane, of New York, Bravely Offers to Go and Nurse the Plugue-Stricken.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORKS !

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 31.-One hundred and eighty-eight cases of yellow fever are already reported, and the slips showing the results of the doctors on their rounds are not all in vet.

Twenty-six deaths were reported up to last night. The yellow flag is out at almost every house, the streets are deserted, business is at a standstill and the hand of every man is against Jacksonville.

The situation is terrible beyond descrip-

The fever seems to have become more virulent in type, and once it gets into a family it seizes upon each member. The death of Lafavette Daucy, Internal Revenue agent. was a fearfully sudden one and set panic in many a heart. Daucy visited his office Tuesday evening. Alone there he was attacked by the fever. He remained there helpless till morning, when it was too late for help. and he died that night.

Dr. Maxwell protests against the vellow flags, as tending to frighten people, helping

The State Board of Health of Mississippi has issued an order denying admission across has issued an order denying admission across the borders of the State to any person not holding a certificate that he has not been exposed to yellow fever, and the United States health authorities have issued an order forbidding the Savannah, Florida and Western Katiway to take passengers from Jacksonville to any point.

Meanwhile the exports say that the depopulation of Jacksonville alone will relieve the city, and the association has passed a resolution asking that as many families as can get away leave the city at once.

In response to this 150 persons left yesterday and more than that number are moving day and more than that number are moving

In response to this 159 persons left yesterday and more than that number are moving to-day. At least 2,000 people will have left by to-mersow night. They go to Camp Perry, where they are quarantined for ten days, after which they will be at liberty.

Dr. Wise, who had much experience during the Memphis scourge, joined the camp to-day and will have charge of the service.

Meantime those who are unable to leave Jacksonville will be made as comfortable as possible and the danger will be reduced to a minimum by segregating the people not already sick in small wooden houses.

Judge Loton M. Jones has aided in the work of depopulation by sentencing thirty-two prisoners confined in the county jail. They will be attached to the chain gang to work on country roads.

Miss Delano, ate of Bellevue Hospital, New York, has offered her services as nurse to the stricken ones, and Dr. Solace Mitchell has telegraphed his grateful acceptance of her offer. She will take charge of the nursing staff at Sands Hills Hospital.

Thieves marauded several houses last staff at Sands Hills Hospital.

Thieves marauded several houses last night, and in two instances got warm receptions from the colored people left in charge of the houses.

The colored people are very indignant at derly and were committing depredations

during the panic,
At a meeting of the Colored Auxiliary these stories were denied. There are fifteen or twenty thousand colored people in Jack-

The authorities at Tallahassee have issued a proclamation declaring that the stories of fever at Fernandina, Montricello and Quincy are not true, and that the scourge is confined to Jacksonville, Manatee and Plant City.

And this comes in the face of the bulletin sent by Dr. Dumont at Fernandina stating that there were thirty-four new cases and four deaths there. four deaths there.
All Florida will be on the move in another week if the fever is not checked.

JAY GOULD HAS GOOD SPORT. He Catches a Fine Lot of Trout and Makes a Hearty Meal of Them.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. ROYBURY, N. Y., Aug. 31.-Jay Gould has arrived here in his special car Atalanta from Rondout and expresses his intention of staying here until Monday. Dr. Mann, his physician, accompanies him.

Mr. Gould appears to be in fairly good Mr. Gould appears to be in fairly good health, though he is very thin and stoops painfully. He was in high glee upon his arrival over his luck as a lisherman near Arkville. He fished in the lake there and caught over ten pounds of trout. After that he took a sixteen-mile ride over a rough road and got up a good appetite for some of the trout which were cooked for him.

Mr. Gould's birthplace is but four miles from here, and he stopped there on his way hither.

Struck to Uphold Their Delegate. Pifty stair-builders and wood-workers quit work to-day it. Ackerly & Gerard's moulding mills at linnter's Point at the order of Walking-Delegate Garry.

Charles Gerard, of the firm, would not allow the delegate to enter the mills and Garry fostiwith ordered the strike. The firm threaten to hire non-union men and work ten bours.

Saved from Drowning. Charles McKinley, a New Yorker, eighteen years old, summering at Shrub Oak, Westohester County, started to swim three m les on a wager at lake Monegan. He was selzed with grampe and was pulled out of the water by a friend after sinking twice

New Aqueduct Pleasantries.

New York Markets.

New York Mark

LANNON CHALLENGES KILRAIN.

le Will Fight Him Queensberry Rules for Boston, Aug. 31. - It is Joe Lannon, pride of the tri-ward peninsula, who is the first to equest the Heraid to make a reply for him to ake Kilrain's statements which appeared in the interview published Thursday.

"I am one of those." said Joe, who don't believe that Jake Kilrain is any better now than he was before he left a year ago. If anybody gives you the argument that he is, just ask that party what Jake has done since he left here.

"The only answer that can be made is that forcethe description."

"The only answer that can be made is that he fought a draw with Jem Smith, which I, for one, don't consider a very great honor. Gentleinen who are friends of mine and also friends of his, have suggested to me that they would like to see another glove fight between Kilrain and myself, and they say they will subscribe $2,000 as a purse for the event.

"I have never been satisfied over the result of our last fight. The man who was behind me in the ring made me. fight clever," as he called it, and I did fight a fair, stand-up battle, while Kilrain butted me and did other things, allowable, perhaps, but not considered 'plever."

"Well, the next time I fight I will carry on the battle on my own judgment, and will take place within a month.

"Well, the next time I fight I will carry on the battle on my own judgment, and will use only such unclever tactics as Kilrain adopts. I will be considerably heavier, besides, than when I last met Kilrain.
"I don't care for his champouship and I don't desire to get into jeopardy by fighting under London prize-ring rules with bare knuckles; but here is what I will do with Kilrain; I will fight him to a finish under Marquis of Queensberry rules with two-ounce gloves, within jour or five weeks after my battle with Jim Glynn, of Brooklyn, for which I am now training, and which will take place within a month.

"I am willing to divide the purse in this way: The winner to take $1,750 and the loser $250. The loser will thus be able to pay his training expenses and the winner will get quite a big pot of money for his success.

MAYOR HEWITT SPEAKS.

He Knows Nothing of Practical Politics and Won't Reply to Ridgway.

Mayor Hewitt was asked this morning what he thought of Judge White's resignawhat he thought of Judge white's resignation from the County Democracy.

"I know nothing about it," he said.

"Their factional quarrels do not interest me in the least. I know no more about practical politics than a child."

The Mayor says that he based all the statements made in his letter to Gov. Hill about the Aqueduct on the evidence brought out before the Fassett Committee, and does not intend to make any repuly to or Commissioner intend to make any reply to ex-Commussioner Ridgway's letter.

"Had Mr. Ridgway been reappointed," he "Had Mr. Ridgway been reappointed," he said, "and really there was quite an effort made in that direction, I don't suppose he would have written that letter. Mr. Ridgway has been let out, I suppose, by agreement; but the question before the new Aqueduct Commission is not as to whether there has been sufficient money held back to pay for the bad work, but whether or not the contractors have already received something like $700,000 which they should not have received.

"But I shall have no controversy with Mr. Ridgway. If he objects to the statements in my letter to the Governor he must blame the witnesses before the investigating committee witnesses before the investigating committee and not me. I had the testimony before me when I wrote."

SAFE AS GAS OR WATER.

So the Ricctricians Declare That High Ten sion Currents Can Be.

The National Electric-Light Association, resuming its session at the Brunswick this morning, passed a resolution expressing its sympathy with Mayor Hewitt in his address before the association upon the subject of putting wires underground, but took the opportunity of expressing the opinion that up portunity of expressing the opinion that up to the present time no commercial practical method had been brought to the notice by which high-tension direct currents—such as are used for are lighting—can be placed underground.

Resolutions were also passed declaring that it is beyond doubt possible to produce and distribute high-tension currents for public use without any more danger or difficulty than attends the distribution of gas and water in our dwellings.

water in our dwellings.

An emphatic protest was entered against legislation prejudicial to the advance and the harmony of electric-lighting interests.

The Closing Quotations.

	Open.	High.	Love,	Clo
Adams Express	14036	149%	14936	14)
Canada Southern	564	56%	61 56	61
Clave., Col., Cip. & Ind	58	58	58	58
Chic., Burl. & Quincy	11116	114	11114	114
Chicago A Northwest	115%	115%	1141	116
Chie Mil & St. Paul	721	701	721	74
Ohlesgo, Mil. & St. P. pfd	112	112	112	112
Chicago & Northwest	110%	110%	110	110
Chic. & Kastern III, ptd Om., Ind., St. L. & Chic. Col. & Hocking Valley Colorado Cosl & Iron	1000	94136	92%	- 99
Om., Ind., St. L. & Cmc	9934	8634	86	86
Col. & Hooking Valley	200	2016	20 kg	2
Consolidated Gas	815	817.	B136	81
Del., Lack & Westers	1427	1423	14.3	142
Delaware & Hudson	119	11h	11:54	117
Kast Tenn., Va. & Ga	10%	10%	10%	10
Bant Tenn., Va. & Ga. E. Tenn., Va. & Ga. 2d prd	25	2.5	25	20
FOR WORLD & Deliver City	WHITE.	25%	20.14	. 20
Illinois Central	118%	110	118 %	111
Inc., Bloom. & Western	59	5016	164	50
Louisville & Nashville	97.5	9712	9715	97
Lake Shore	18%	19	1836	18
Lake Kris & Western pfd	68	31194	6157	54
Mich. Central	85%	8634	8534	85
Mich. Central	636	El la	636	_0
Missouri Pacific	80%	80%	7974	79
Missouri, Espess & Tex	130 _a	18%	18	15
Nanh., Chatta. & St. L	8/6	HU M	80% 80%	83
Nash., Chatta & St. L., New Jerrey Contral New York Contral. New York & New England N. Y. Chicago & St. Louis. N. Y. Lake Erie & Westeru, N. Y. Lake Erie & West.pfd.	10:15	108	1003	10
New York & New England	42%	43	425	41
N. V., Chicago & St., Lonis	1614	18%	10 4	25
N. Y., Lake Krie & Western	26	285	27 1 64 1 34 1	- 27
N. Y., Lake Erie & West, pfd.	64.5	645	5510	64
N. Y., Sunq. & Western pro	195	1917	1942	34
N. Y., Lake Erie & West, pfd. N. V., Sunq. & Western pfd., Norfolk & Western pfd., Norfolk & Western pfd.,	667	Buth	684	11
Northern Pacific	2732	27%	27.12	97
Northern Pacific pfd	60%	6114	60%	60
Ohio & Mississippi	231	27174	23	. 22
Out & Western	1036	1656	16%	10
Or. Transcontinental	28).	69	28	2
Oregon Improvement	152	1919.14	3354	6:
Oregon Short Line Philadelphia & Reading	8336	- 59 C	521	55
Danie Decator & Evan	24	33	24	2
Pullman Palaca Car Co	10 / 20	107	10754	16
		26	2436	23
Rich. & W. P. Ter, pfd	74	11.	1700	- 48
St. Paul & Omaha	10034	100%	1000	10
St. P aul & Omana pru	106	10/0	1:00	In
Rich. 2 West Frant 1st. Rich. 4 W. P. Ter. pfd St. Paul 4 Omaha pfd St. Paul 2 Omaha pfd St. Paul, Minn. 2 Manitoba St. Lonis 2 Nan Francisco pfd.	716	1100	72%	7
Teres Pacific	2439	2436	24	24
Texas Pacific	2812	28%	2836	28
Umon Pacific.	601	61 %	601	61
United States Express	71136	7036	7934	- 25
twee he I de Pag. Drd	8014	100	83	2
Western Union Telegraph Wheeling & Lake Krie	687	5835	68	E.
A meeting or rown personal	- No.

New York Markets.

LA BLANCHE BLED FOR KITTY

THE PUGILIST AND MATT QUINLAN FIGHT FOR A GIRL ON THE BOWERY. .

The Marine Resists Arrest and Gets Som Ugly Scalp Wounds-Another Fight at Station-House-After Being Dectored at Believue the Pugillat Pays a Light

The usual monotony of the upper part of the Bowery was somewhat disturbed between I and 2 o'clock this morning by a fight between a real fighter and a real backer of

George La Blanche, "the Marine," was one of the pugilists and Matthew Quinlan, a wellknown sport, was the other, and, as in the majority of cases of the kind, the unpleasantness grew out of a rivalry for the affections of a fair but blase cypriau. The Marine and Quinlan had been imbibing immoderately all day, and their pota ions began to take effect about midnight, when, with a party of jovial friends, they were celebrating La Blanche's recent victory in Johnny Opp's cosmopolitan establishment on the Bowery.

The Marine, it appears, has for some time been enamored of a young woman who enjoys the rather uneuphonious sobriquet of Kitty the Speeler."

Kitty is not a bad-looking person, but her eputation is decidedly unsavory. She seems to have a weakness in the direction of exponents of the manly art, and when La Blanche declared his affection for her, her cup of happiness overflowed.

But then came the villain, in the person of Quinlan, a robust, powerful-looking fellow, who endeavored to alienate the affections of Kitty from the Marine, her avowed pro-

At first the maiden turned a deaf ear to his

At first the maiden turned a deaf ear to his protestations of love, but by persistent efforts Quinlan succeeded in forcing her to declare that she did care for him, "just a little."

With this encouragement Quinlan pressed his suit with renewed vigor and La Blanche, in a self-satisfied way, looked on and smiled. But he had too much confidence in his own charms, for before he really realized his position Quinlan became a great favorite with the fascinating Kitty.

In many ways she showed a growing dislike for the fighter, on whom the truth finally dawned that he was "cut out."

Quinlan was in high feather at his success, and told his friends that he should defend Catherine with his heart's blood if necessary.

La Blanche heard of these declarations, but did not apparently heed them. He met his successful rival often, and chatted pleasantly about ring matters, but not until this morning was the subject of Kitty touched upon. pon. Quinlan announced his intention of "doing up the Marine" if he interfered with him, and concluded that he was the better man anyway.

After the party had drank several dozen times in Opp's place last night, La Blanche became very abusive and threatened to wipe the sawdust from the floor with Quinlan's

The latter questioned his ability to accomplish the feat, and the next moment the men were at it.
They were almost immediately separated.

however, and the whole party went outside.
Here bostilities were resumed. Quinlan had decidedly the best of the fight when the appearance of Officer Hock, of the East Fifth street station, put most of the party to dische flight.

The disputants, however, were not to be so easily scared, and continued hostilities in open defiance of the blue-coated minion of the law, who, in a business-like manner, arrested both men.
At the station-house there was a renewal of the fight.

Sergt. Weising endeavored to quiet the their liberty.

They waited for halt and hour and were then released, their fines having been paid.

A few moments after they had gone some one told the little Judge that they were prizeinghters.

"What!" he said, angered by letting them slip away so easily: "if I had known that I would have given them a month on the usland." La Blanche avers that his injuries were caused by policemen's clubs, and will devote considerable time in the future to getting even. On the other hand, the police say that Quinlan knocked him against the railing in the station-house.

"Kitty" discovered this morning after hearing of the fight that she loved La Blanche better than Quinlan after all, and will immediately begin to try and win him back.

Democratic Rally in the Minetcenth. The Nineteenth Assembly District Cleveland and Thurman First Presidential Campaign Club held an enthusiastic meeting at the club-rooms o the West-Side Democratic Association, 277 West One Hundred and Twenty-27th street. One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street.

The following officers were elected; Chairman, Charles E. Foster; Secretary, Philip Farmer; Captalo, Jonn Bussey; First Lieutenani, Hishard Lvons; Second Lieutenani, John Claffey; Taira Lieutenani, Eugens Biessing; First Sergeani, George Sheman; Second Sergeani, Earnest Shuber; Third Sergeasia, A. Mott: Foorth Sergeani, C. Canfley; Pirst Corporal, E. Lynch; Second Corporal, Pirst Corporal, John Gray; Fourth Corporal, John Gray; Fourth Corporal, John Gray; Fourth of English (1998), Hay A committee was appointed to engage a drum and fife corps. This crob intends to take an active part in the campaign. It already has an enlistment of seventy-five first Presidential voters, with a steadily increasing membership roll.

Thomas Doltes, of 128 West Twenty-seventh street, and Charles Warner, of 148 West Thirtysecond street, were arraigned before Justice Patterson, in the Jefferson Market Police Court this moraing, for robbing the jewelry store of Barbara Herbstreet, at 120 West Thirty-fifth efreet. They entered the store tast evening, and white one held the woman in conversation the other stole a French clock. His classed them down Seventh aveaue and they dropped the clock. They were subsequently arrested and were held in $300 ball each for trial.

Four hundred babies died of suremer complaints in this city in July. Alexander's Caclera Infantum Cure will cure or money returned.

HE GAMBLED AWAY $40,000.

Faithless Charlie Hebbard's Big Losses of the Races and the Card Table. Women, fast horses and cards.

This combine has worked the ruin of many happy home, and when Charles E. Hebpard, the Grand Union marketman, of Forty second street, took them into partnership, he only brought about the usual, the inevitable

He and his wife, Isabel S. Hebbard, lived as happily as two turtle doves for thirteen as happily as two turtle doves for thirteen years in marital bliss.

He was prosperous, and two hostages to fortune had been offered by them.

Then, about a year ago, he began to be a sport. And if his own story may be taken for truth he was not a success in the new role.

He neglected his family, and his wife finally sued for a separation. Then she discovered that her hubby was an all-rounder, and that he had worshipped other goddesses than her whom he had vowed to love only, and she withdrew the case and substituted one for absolute divorce for principal cause, asking for alimony.

divorce for principal cause, asking for alimony.

A referee decided that as Hebbard was doing a good business and owned a fine house in Forty-fifth street which rented for $1,500, he ought to pay for his liberty to go as he pleased $2,000 a year to the wife and $500 each to the children.

The referee's decision has not yet been confirmed, and pending the suit Hebbard was to pay $55 a month allmony.

For two months this allowance has not been forthcoming, and the wronged wife applied to Judge Davis, in Superior Court, for an order committing her erring husband to Ludlow Street Jail for contempt of Court in not obeying its order.

Judge Moneil defended the motion for Hebbard, who made affidavit that as a sport

Hobbard, who made affidavit that as a sport he had got in a very bad way.

He had followed the races, but he had not infrequently bet on the wrong horse, and his favoritos were left in the races.

In this way he had left $20,000 for luckier men to handle. Then, too, he had "coppered" when he ought to have "played open" at fare, and had chipped out enough reds and white, to make even a greater loss than that at the

The festive Charlie, if he is truthful, was also a bad man at billiards. But unlucky kisses on the green broadcloth, combined with a better handler of the cue in his oppo-nent, had done him up at the Frenchman's game.

His favorite little game with the ivories was for trifles like $350 a side, and a few games of this sort lost had depleted his sheepskin to a large extent also.

In fact, he says he is in debt to the extent of forty games of this sort, or $14,000 in cash.

His Forty-fitth street house is mortgaged heavily, and indeed for an all-round sport he is in bad shape.

These are some of the reasons why he has not paid the allower per $100.00 and the allower. not paid the alimony nor $198.20 referees and stenographer's fees, and why he thinks it would not be just to send him to jail. Beaides, his lease of the market will expire next May, and he hasn't much of a chance any way.

Judge Dugro thought Mr. Hebbard ought to pay the allmony, but said he would take a little time before deciding whether a little retirement as a guest of Warden Keating would be good for him.

STARTING HER TOWARDS PRISON.

William Stephens Accusing His Wife of

The case of a man charging his wife with a crime which, if proved against her, will send her to State prison, was presented to Justice White at the Yorkville Police Court this morning.

The complainant was William Stephens. 310 West Forty-ninth street, and his wife is a stout, fine-looking woman, thirty-six years old, who has hitherto borne an irreproachable character. The two have been long married, and their relations have been of the pleasant

Sergt. Weising endeavored to quiet the rumpus, but falled, and for a sew moments the place looked like a prize-ring.

It required the combined efforts of four policemen, the doorman and several citizens to separate the men.

Quimlan was locked up, and all night long he nurled threats through the iron bars at La Blanche, who heard them not, for he was in Believue Hospital, having several ugly scalp wounds dressed. The fighters were brought down to Essex Market Court early this morning and La Blanche's was one of the first cases to be disposed of.

He said he was thirty-two years old, lived in Providence, was a sailor, and wanted satisfaction.

"The only satisfaction I can give you," dryly remarked Judge Duffy, " is to impose a fine of $3."

Quinlan was treated to the same dose, and they were both led back to the prison, asteneither had the amount necessary to secure their liberty.

They waited for halt and hour and were then released, their fines having been paid.

A few moments after they had gone some one told the little Judge that they were prize-one provided the little Judge that they were prize-one told the little Judge that they were prize-one told the little Judge that they were prize-one told the little Judge that they were prize-one to the same dose, and to the prize to the same dose, and they were both led back to the prison, as neither had the amount necessary to secure their liberty.

They waited for halt and hour and were then released, their fines having been paid.

A few moments after they had gone some one told the little Judge that they were prize-one and they were prize-one and they were prize-one their liberty.

detectives an opportunity to recover the goods and have them identified.

Stephens is very indignant at his wife. He says that he believes her guilty and will do all that he can to have her punished.

Lew Dockstader and his friend, G. F. Marion are stopping at the Barthold: Hotel.

Their love of fun has extended to the hotel regis ter, on which is inscribed " Lew Dockstader, Portugal, N. Y.," and below it is written  G. F. Mar ion, Toledo, France,

'Some more of their humbug," said Clerk Trne, good-naturedly, when the repurter called his attention to the signatures.

Bernard Reise, aged nine years, was run over this morning at Rivington and Norfolk streets and instantly killed. The little fallow was crossing the street on an errand when a large between wagon from George Ringler & Co.'s dashed around the corner, knocked him down and crushed him. The

Pleasures of Early Autump Travel on the Pleasures of Rarly Assumin Travel on the Central Rathroad of New Jersey.

The many excursion and pleasure tours offered by this road during the early autumn will prove interesting to tourists who love the country best at this sesson of the year.

New Jersey and Pennsylvania are rich in scenic beauty, and particularly so along the time of this road, where beautiful rivers, majestic mountains, placid lakes or boundless sea can all be visited by a short ride from New York. Where so many attractive spots lure the travellor it is not difficult to select one in which to pass the day of week blissfully. The valley of the Lenigh, lovely Gien Onoko, Lake Hopathong, the "Gen of America" inland Waters. "High Erigge, Easton, Mountain Park and Mauch Chunk, and scores of charming resorts are all on the lure of the Central Relivoud of New Jersey. Superb Woodruff Drawing-Room Cars are run over this line, fast time is assured, and the frequency of trains caables one to go and return at pleasure.

and the frequency of trains enables one to go and return at pleasure.

The attractiveness of the inland resorts along this road are too well known to require description, but to those unfamiliar with the beauties of this section a giance as the "Tourists Golde" and time cearts, which can be sad at 71 Broadway (Arcade), 119 Liberty at, and at depoi foot of Liberty at, will reveal points of interest worthy of notice. Tickets and pairor car as are on sale at Nos. 71, 413, 351, 344, 1450, 1853 Broadway, 757 6th ave., 254 West 135th at, and 124 class 125th at, New York, and in Brooklyn at 4 Court at., 869 Fulton at, 98 Broadway, and at ferry foot of Liberty at, ""

Broadway, and at ferry foot of Liberty at, ""

Broadway.

BRUTAL MURDER.

An Old Woman Brutally Slaughtered in Her Bed.

Her Husband Gashed and Unconscious Beside Her.

He Is Supposed to Have Committed the Atrocity.

Another murder mystery. An aged woman was found dead in her bed this morning, and peside her lay her husband, unconscious and in a dying condition. The woman's throat was cut from ear to ear. The man was terribly gashed.

It was at 8.30 o'clock that the murder vas discovered. Catherine Schmidt, an eleven-year-old girl, who lives in the pasement of the three-story brick house at 714 East Sixth street, went into the cooms of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Kohn, who ocsupied the second floor.

The little girl told 'her story of the nd the tragical scene she witnessed to THE EVENING WORLD reporter :

A man had called to see Mr. Kohn at about 3.30, and Katie went upstairs to tell Mr. Kohn that he was wanted.

The old man was lying on the hed naked and covered with blood. When told that a man desired to see him he repeated the words "A man," and asked Katie in a weak voice to go to the ice-box and get him a bottle of wine. She did as he bade her, and the old gentle man took the bottle and attempted to draw man took the bottle and attempted to draw the cork, but was too weak to do so.

The little girl then noticed that what she supposed to be a bandage about Mr. Kohn's body was his intestines protruding from a wound in the abdomen.

The affrighted child ran screaming to her mother, and told her what she had seen.

She had not seen the blood-besmoared body of Mrs. Kohn, which was lying on the bed on the other side of the man, the head and trunk hanging almost to the floor in the door which led to the parlor.

Mrs. Schmitt immediately went up to the apartments of the Kohns and took in the situation at a glance.

Ars. Scinniti immediately went up to the apartments of the Kohns and took in the situation at a glance.

"What have you done? What is the matter?" she asked of the wounded man.

"I am tired of life." he replied.

"Where is your wite?"

"Here," and a weak and trembling hand pointed to the horribly contorted dead body beside him.

Mrs. Kohn, who was sixty-two years old, had her throat terribly cut.

She had on all of her underwear, her shoes and stockings and a sacque.

Her husband, who is sixty-seven years old, had on his undershirt and tronsers. He was a weally gashed in the abdomen, there was a deep gash in his left wrist, and there was a wound in his head that looked as if it might have been made by a pistol builet.

Mrs. Schmidt ran for a doctor and Policeman Murray, of the Union Market station, who was bassing at the time, was called in. Murray just took a look at the terrible spectacle and hastened to the station-house, where he made a report to Capt. Schultz. Detective McCormick was sent to investigate. He scarched the rooms and found a pocket-knife in a bureau drawer. The blade was 2½ inches long, very dull and covered with blood.

On a table near a lounge in a rear adjoining room were three half-empty wine bottles and two glasses. The floor near the lounge was also blood-stained.

The room in which lay the bodies was in also blood-stained. much disorder, and everything indicated that a terrible struggle had taken place in it, Clothing was scattered all around and chairs

Clothing was scattered all around and chairs were upiurned.

The detective discovered several bank books, but very little money.

He also found a number of bills for rent of houses owned by Kobn.

Kohn was taken to Bellevue Hospital unconscious. He will probably die.

He is a cigar-maker, but retired from active work eighteen years ago. It has been his custom to go to Germany every year alone. He owned the house he lived in. He has four married children, three daughters and a son.

son.
Dr. Goldberger, who occupies the floor im

Dr. Goldberger, who occupies the floor immediately beneath the apartments of the Kohns, said that the woman's jugular vein had been severed and that her death must have been almost instantaneous.

She had, in his opinion, been dead about eight hours when he saw her body, and her husband must have lain there beside her dead body in an agony of suffering with his terrible wounds, which were thought by the police to be self-inflicted.

No one in the house had heard any noise issuing from the rooms occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Kohn, and another queer circumstance is that none of the tenants saw either the husband or wife yesterday, whereas it has been their custom to pass in and out several times during the day.

It was reported that Mrs. Lemlein, who occupies the apartments over the Kohns', heard the was reported that area. Lemiell, who occupies the apartments over the Kohns', heard the voices raised in anger and sounds of a struggle on the floor below vesterday, but she was seen by The EVENING WORLD reporter and said that she had heard Wonto reporter and said that she had heard absolutely nothing.

Some of the neighbors spoke of trouble which the old gentleman had had with his children, and some averred that he would not receive them in his house.

Mrs. Abrahams, a sister of the murdered woman, who lives in the adjoining house at No. 712 East Sixth street, said that she had no doubt that Mr. Kohn committed the double crime while he was temporarily insane.

He had been affected with melancholia for years, she said.

This statement was corroborated by Mrs Frankin, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kohn, who lives in East Fifth street. The relatives were averse to talking about the tragedy, preferring to make their state-ments to the Coroner.

Prairie Fires Ruging in Montana

S. PAUL, Minn., Aug. St. - Specials from Mon-tana give report of a terrible prairie fire that is weeping over the cattle ranges in Northern Monsweeping over the cattle ranges in Northern Mon-tana. A distance of fifty or sixty miles has been burned over, destroying all of the winter grazing and large quantities of tag.

Benton and St. Louis Cattle Company's range has been destroyed. Everything is very dry and unlesset rains soon it is foared the fire will cover a large portion of the country.

DEAD WITH AN UGLY WOUND.

Herk Schalley's Body Pound on the Side walk-Murder Suspected.

Sixty-seventh street station, was patrolling his post on East Seventy-fourth street early this morning, he saw the prostrate body of a at once sent his detectives out to work up the case.

They found that Schalley left the store at 5 o'clock last night, as usual, to go home. In a salcon where he stopped he met a friend, and the two had several drinks together. At 7 o'clock they were seen standing in front of the house on Third avenue where Schalley boards.

the house on Third avenue where Schalley boards.

Schalley wanted to go in and get his supper, but the other man, whose identity is unknown but whose description is in the hands of the police, persuaded him not to go in the house and they both went away. That was the last seen of the unfortuna'e clerk until his body was found on the sidewalk.

to Chiengo.

The remains of the late Bishop Harris, of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, arrived from London this morning on board the North German Lloyd's steamship Lahn.

Bishop Harris died in London while at Bishop Harris died in London while attending the Lambeth Pan Anglican Conference. The body was embalmed at London, and was received at Southampton by the Lahn, which sailed on Thursday, Aug. 23. The steamer reached her dock at Hoboken at 7,30 A. M. Accompanying the remains of the late distinguished prelate were his wife and daughter and the Rev. Dr. John McCarroll, of Detroit. President W. B. Ledyard, of the Michigan Central Railroad, and several Episcopalian clergymen of this city and Detroit were at the dock, when the Lahn arrived, to receive the remains of the Bishop.

Cleveland Not Popular in Bugiand.

things it says . "Is the latest action of the President and nobler in conception than that of the Not one whit. It offends equally by preferring private advantage to public good. It is, of the two, more to be condemned, both on account of its more audacious want of principle, and proceeding from the highest quar ter in the state, whence conduct quite different might have been looked for.

ing dodges. In a word, President Cleveland tors and has forgotten dignity, statesmanship. vantage over his opponents."

A Russian Mission to Thibet. INT CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.I LONDON, Aug. 31.—Geu. Prajevalsky, the Russian explorer, left St. Petersburg yesterday on his journey of discovery to Thibet. He wil pick up on the way a selected band of hardy Cossacks to accompany him. What is more, he will be backed up by all the authority and power of Russia in case of mishap or ill treatment.

Boulanger's Trip to Sweden.

abroad is all that is known. That he would visit Sweden is looked upon as absurd. The Gil Blas, newspaper, declares that he has gone to have an interview visited by a destructive conflagration yesterday in which 150 houses were destroyed, 200 families were left without shelter and one ent estimates of the loss place it at £500,000. IBY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION. London, Aug. 31 .- A new line of fast cean steamers is announced to run between Milford, South Wales, and New York. Vessels of the highest capacity for speed are to in five dars.

Eloped with a Negro Conchman.

ST. PAUL, MIGH., Aug. 31. - Miss Lilian Dephley has eloped with her father's negro coachman, William Stewart. Stewart was recently discharged for being too attentive to hiss Lillian, who is not set fifteen years old and just budding into woman-On Monday evening Stewart and Miss Lillian were seen together, since which neithing has been seen or heard of them. Mr. Bephley, who is a highly respected citizen, is about crazed with grief and says he has no idea waste taey have Labor Day at the Custom-House.

While Policeman James Brown, of the East

this morning, he saw the prostrate body of a man lying on the sidewalk in front of No. 175. At first he thought it was some drunken man, overcome by the effects of liquor. Upon examination of the rigid limbs of the figure it gave conclusive evidence that death had ensued at least an hour previous.

Assistance was summoned, and the body was taken to the station-house. From letters and papers found in the pockets of the dead man it was learned that he was William Schalley, twenty-six years old, of 1012 Third avenue, and had been in the employ of Bloomingdalo Bros, as a clerk in the drygoods establishment.

Examination of the body disclosed a large bruise on the back of the head. This led to a suspicion of foul play, and Capt. Gunner at once sent his detectives out to work up the case.

His Affianced Bride, Kitty, Is

Deputy Coroner Scholer will make an au-topsy to-day. It is supposed that the blow on the back of the head fractured the skull and caused death. ever since he came to this country,

BISHOP HARRIS'S REMAINS.

They Reached This City To-Day, on Route

the remains of the Bishop.

An undertaker's wagon immediately removed the body to the Grand Central Depot, where it will be placed on board an American Express Company's car and taken on the Chicago Express train to Detroit.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—President Cleveland is not very popular in England just now. Indeed, they don't think half as much of him as they do of Mr. Blaine. The Whitehall Review savagely criticises him in a long leader. Among other

"He has descended from the position of resident and the pure atmosphere of impartiality and statesmanship to the platform of the politician and the vitiated breathing of party moves and electioneer
"I suppose," said Alderman McMurray," "if the tunnel is constructed it will be conhas lowered himself to the level of the Senaeverything, in an attempt to gain a party ad-

187 CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.1 PARIS, Aug. 31.—The mystery of Gen. Boulanger's voyage to Sweden incognito is still unsolved. That the General has gone with Bismarck. One Hundred and Fifty Houses Destroyed. [BY CABLE TO PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION, I LONDON, Aug. 31.—A despatch from Vienna says the city of Tarnobazeg, in Gallicia, was man was probably fatally injured. The pres be out on the line. It is expected that the voyage will be made

The Custom-House will remain open between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock in the morning on Labor Day for the entrance and clearance of vessels.

O'CLOCK EXTRA

PRICE ONE CENT.

News that Will Bring Sadness to Many a Little Heart.

After Several Weeks' Illness the Pet Chimpanzee Expired This Morning.

Disconsolate. Mr. Crowley is dead. At 11,30 this morning he breathed his last, while Jake Cook, who has been with him stood sorrowfully by, and Miss Kitty, his affianced bride, swung sadly on her trapeze in the adjoining cage.

Mr Crowley had been alling for several weeks. His sickness began with an attack of indigestion. On his recovery from this he appeared to be very languid, and Dr. March, who was be very languid, and Dr. Marsh, who was called to attend him, placed his discorder as malaria and prescribed generous doses of quinine.

Mr. Cook nursed him with the greatest care, and although at times he seemed to brighten up a little, he never was really well after the first attack.

Mr. Crowley took large quantities of heef-tea, jelly, oranges and benamas, but he did not seem to reliably them as be had. And even the milk punches of which he had been so fond seemed tasialess.

of which he had been so fond seemed tasisless.

Mr. Crowley was a Liberian chimpansee. He came to this country in 1884. He was brought here by Mr. Smyth, the American Minister to Liberia.

A party of natives came down to the coast with Mr. Crowley in their possession, they having shot his parents a day or two before in order to capture him.

He was presented to the Park by Mr. Smyth and always been considered the metagerie's greatest attraction.

Thousands of little children who looked upon him as a friend will mourn his loss.

Miss Kitty was brought over here a year ago as a wife to Mr. Crowley.

She has occupied an adjoining cage, preparatory to the couple's going to house keeping.

Mr. Crowley did not like her at the set the

Mr. Crowley did not like her at the start, and on the first introduction spat in her eye. Of late they have been better friends. When Miss Kitty hecame aware of his death she displayed much grief, and was in-

PAUPER LABOR DOESN'T PAY.

Everett P. Wheeler's Suge Utterance at the East River Tunnel Hearing. The Aldermanic Committee on Bridges and Tunnels held a meeting to-day and listened to arguments in favor of the construction of a tunnel under Twenty-sighth street from Eleventh avenue to the East River.

The proposed tunnel is to connect with a tunnel under the East River and the new New York and Long island Railroad Com-

Au Rieven-Year-Old Nursery Maid.

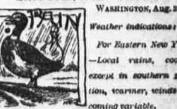

A HOBOKEN BAKER ACCUSED. The Charge or Criminal Assault Made by

Julius G. Schroeder, a wealthy baker, who lives with his family at 212 Washington street, Hoboken, is charged with criminally assault-Hoboken, is charged with criminally assault-ing Ida Lefler, a child II years old, daughter of a crimoled veteran, Louis Lefler, who lives at 122 Griffith street, on the Hill, Jersey City. Ida is a pretty girl and unusually well de-veloped for her age. She had charge of a young child of the Schroeders, which slept with her in her room on the first floor of the house. It was in this room, she alleges, that the April last, has been found and detained at Stanstead Junction, Quebec. A Hint to the Firemen. The Fire Commissioners promulgated an order this morning that "it shall be the duty of every officer or employee of the Fire Department, upon becoming in any manner cognizant of any matter or information affecting the official duties or in-terest of any bureau, uranch or office of the de-partment, to make immediate report thereof to such bureau, branch or office." A Bunco Map Skips His Batt. BOSTON, Aug. St. -William Post, the bunco eerer, arrested by Inspector Gerraughty several

Local Rains, Cooler Weather

except in southern por

Indicated by Blakely's tele-thermometer 1887. 67 0 A.M..... 65 12 M.....

Average for past twenty-four hours, 78 2-8 Average for corresponding time last year.

structed by contractors who will here italians at $1 a day."
"I am apposed to cheap labor," replied Mr. Wheeler. "I've always found out that one Irishman can do more work in a day then two Italians. Pauper labor is cheap, but it never amounts to much."

assault was committed.

weeks ago for swindling Mrs. Simonds, of Charles-town, of 35,000, has jumped his bath. Doc Minchon, of New York, went bail for him in the sum of $4,560.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31. --

coming variable. tion, tearmer, teinds be-

The Weather To-Day.

bezzled $110,000 and fied from the city in Embezzler De Baun Found.

Charles I. De Baun, the former assistant cashier of the Park National bank, who em-